

▲ H.E. Stephenson King, the Prime Minister of Saint Lucia (on the left) and Mr. Chun-Wei Chen, Director-general of the STSP Administration (on the right)

▲ H.E. Stephenson King, the Prime Minister of Saint Lucia (the third from the left) and his delegation observing the STSP's planning and construction

Excellent Global Reputation

International Attention on the STSP's Development

H.E. Stephenson King, Prime Minister of Saint Lucia, Visited the STSP

H.E. Stephenson King, Prime Minister of Saint Lucia and his delegation, accompanied by Mr. and Ms. Tai-Chu Chou, ambassador to Saint Lucia, visited the STSP on June 17, 2008 to observe Taiwan's high-tech development as a reference for Saint Lucia's own development.

Prime Minister King was hosted with the warmest welcome by Mr. Chun-Wei Chen, Director-general, Mr. Men-Feng Wu, Deputy Director-general, and other Division Directors of the STSP Administration. And with the aid of the Park model and a comprehensive briefing, the STSP Administration was able to enlighten our distinguished guests with a better understanding of the Park's development and future planning.

Mr. Stephen M. Young, Director of American Institute in Taiwan (AIT) visiting the STSP

Mr. Stephen M. Young, AIT Taipei Director, visited the STSP's American enterprises on October 7, 2008. He was first briefed in KSP office about the current development of the Park and then accompanied by Chun-Wei Chen, Director-general of the STSP Administration to visit SAFC Hitech Taiwan Co., Ltd. in the Park. Young then visited Corning Display in TSP. Alan T. Eusden, President of Corning, gave Young a personal tour of the plant.

Director Young noted the impressive development of the STSP and said he hoped that American enterprises would further contribute to the Park.

▲ Mr. Stephen M. Young, AIT Taipei Director (the third from the right), Mr. Chun-Wei Chen, Director-general of the STSP Administration (the second from the right) and the staff of SAFC Hitech Taiwan Co., Ltd

▲ Mr. Stephen M. Young, AIT Taipei Director (the fourth from the right), Mr. Chun-Wei Chen, Director-general of the STSP Administration (the third from the right) and the staff of Corning Display