

Commencement of Southern Taiwan Innovative Startups Service Platform

On September 9, the commencement ceremony of “Southern Taiwan Innovative Startups Service Platform” was organized to integrate startup resources of relevant central and local governmental agencies, equipment of R&D institutions, and resources of Park enterprises to provide all resources including technologies, capitals, industrial mentors, devices and equipment, and small-scale mass production needed by startups so as to enable the STSP to become the most powerful Southern Taiwan Innovative Startups Service Platform.

▲ Officially launched of “Southern Taiwan Innovative Startups Service Platform” (September 9, 2015)

Link with the Western US for Innovative Startup Learning

On September 30, led by former Deputy Director-general, Mr. Lin Yeongshown, the STSP delegation visited startup accelerators in University of Southern California and University of California, Los Angeles, Innobridge Capital Management, SVT Angels, and startups and their teams for opinion sharing and exchanges. The delegation also visited the US well-known do-it-yourself workshop, Techshop.

▲ Visit of CEO of Bezael, Mr. Wu Cheming (the third one from right) and CEO of Robotics, Mr. Jens Windau (the third one from left) (September 30, 2015)

New Records for the Presence of Innovative Startups

The STSPB has integrated internal resources with external ones under the “From IP to IPO” (FITI) of the Ministry of Science and Technology and provided a place, diverse counseling resources, and networking for entrepreneurship and mentor and incubation services. By the end of 2015, 73 startup teams were incubated, and among them, 28 set up their enterprises, 6 were present at Incubation Center of the STSP, 5 became the STSP Park enterprises, and 10 teams were awarded with the startup grants at an amount of NT$2 million.

▲ Photo of VIP and Startup Teams (December 30, 2015)

Ignition of Startup Gold Rush

On December 30, the event of “Demonstration of Startup Achievements and Seminar on Matching of Angel Investors, Venture Capital, and Startups” was organized to gather 13 top startup teams in Southern Taiwan. By demonstrating their achievements in startups, they caught the attention of more than 30 angel investors and venture capital firms, presenting the STSP as the most important innovative startup site in Southern Taiwan as well as the new paradise choice for startup entrepreneurs when they come back to Southern Taiwan.